FORTY-SIX

Converts at Baptist Meeting Up to Sunday Night.

Meeting Will Close To-Morrow Night, Making Twenty-Three Days It Has Continued.

The revival at the Baptist church, in which Rev. Francis William Taylor has done the preaching for three weeks, will close Wednesday night.

Up to Sunday night there had been forty-six additions to the church, about forty of them new converts and the rest by letter.

These additions have increased the membership of the church to about 575. Others are expected to join before the meeting closes.

Mr. Taylor has proven to be a preacher of wonderful drawing qualities. His crowds have packed the church day after day and night after night for three weeks and the results of the meeting have surpassed expectations.

A collection was taken up Sunday night to defray the expenses of the meeting and compensate the evangelist. The contributions were purely voluntary and the officers of the church will continue to receive them until to-morrow night.

RIVES-CLAYPOOL.

Popular Young Farmer to Wed Bowling Green Belle To-day.

The Park City Times says: "The pleasant announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Ella H. Claypool, of this city, to Mr. George P. Rives, of Clark, Christian county. The marriage will take place Tuesday (to-day) at the residence of Mrs. Mildred Claypool, on Twelfth street, the bride's mother. No invitations have been issued, and only the family and immediate relatives will be present. Mr. and Mrs. Rives will leave at once for St. Louis and other points and will be at home to their friends after Dec. 12. Miss Claypool is one of the most popular young ladies of Bowling Green. Her family is one of the oldest, largest and most prominent in the county. Mr. Rives is a wealthy young farmer and resides near Hopkinsville."

Mr. Rives is a son of Mr. R. F. Rives and a brother of Attorney Frank Rives, of this city. He is engaged in farming with his father, the firm cultivating something like 2,000 acres of the finest lands in the county. Mr. Rives is one of the most progressive and wide-awake young men in Christian county. Of robust physique, strikingly handsome, well qualified for business and prosperous in his affairs, he has a bright future before him. The Kentuckian tenders its congratulations in advance.

CHRISTIAN COUNTY LAND.

Several Farms Sold By Master Commissioner Yesterday.

Master Commissioner Frank Rives sold the following Christian county land yesterday:

Pernacia Blalock farm of 150 acres near Carl, to Gano Lacy, $300.

Ethel M. Kiehl tract of 111 acres, near Crofton, to Tweedle, $730.

Tract of S. F. Cowan, dec'd, near Carl, 18 acres, to S. N. Cowan, $301.

John B. Larner tract of 160 acres in North Christian, to James Buchanan, $675.

F. M. Cooper land, three tracts lying on the Greenville road five miles from the city—1st tract of 100 acres, to John Lofthouse, $300; 2nd tract of 100 acres, to James Cooper, $170; 3rd tract of 83 acres, to Frank Vinson, $50.

B. W. Allen farm of 123 acres near Elmo, to J. A. Allen, $2,967.50.

WORK BEGINS.

Large Force of Hands Break Dirt on Tennessee Central.

Starting Point in Phelps' Field Near Illinois Central Depot.

Robt. Russell, contractor on the Hopkinsville end of the Tennessee Central railroad, pitched camp yesterday in R. H. Holland's field and is getting ready to begin work at once. Mr. Russell has 80 head of mules and drivers for them and his representative, O. D. Thompson, has been trying for several days to secure 100 hands, paying them $1.25 a day. A good many have been secured and actual work is expected to begin to-day. Dirt will be broken in Crab Apple pond, just south of town on the Palmyra pike. There will be a cut on both sides of the pond, which will be traversed and cut in two. The first work will be to make this fill from the cuts on either side.

The road runs so close to J. R. McClure's house that it hits his kitchen in the yard. Crossing into Holland's field, it cuts his farm in two and runs through the paddocks of Dr. M. W. Williams' stock farm. It crosses Main street a little further out than the first survey and connects with the I. C. in the Phelps property. A price of $1200 is asked for the right of way through the Phelps farm, $300 more than the road offered.

There is a good deal of grading and cutting to do near the city and the work will be divided between two crews, one working east and the other west of the Palmyra road. When four miles has been graded, the construction camp will be moved and track will be laid from this end.

If anybody has entertained a doubt that the T. C. means business, he has only to see his eyes to be convinced that Hopkinsville is certain to have the road as soon as it can be built. Work is going ahead at several other points, practically along the whole line between here and Nashville.

UNEARTHED A BOMB.

Relic of War Times Dug Up On Main Street.

Workmen in making an excavation on South Main Street Saturday in the rear of Mr. O. H. Anderson's new house, found three feet below the surface a bombshell about three inches in diameter. It was still loaded and will weigh about two pounds. The lot where it was buried was recently purchased by Mr. Anderson from the heirs of the late H. A. Phelps, and the spot where it was unearthed was not more than 50 feet from the Phelps homestead. How it got into the ground is a mystery. The lot has not been filled in for many years. In fact it is on top of a hill, where it has perhaps never been raised.

The bombshell is in a good state of preservation. It is closed with a wire and was made to explode with a cap inside. There were some stirring times here during the war, but no bombardment of the city, and the shell must have been dropped by some one thrown into the vacant lot, perhaps falling into a posthole or something of the sort. If any of the older citizens can throw any light upon the find, we would be glad to hear from them. It was found on the lot next to Mr. S. E. Trice, who has lived at the same place for 50 years.

CHARLIE DAVIS.

A Former Hopkinsville Plan, Dead in San Francisco.

He was a brother of the former policeman, W. B. Davis.

DEATH NEAR FAIRVIEW.

Good Man Passes Away After Brief Illness.

Mr. Jas. Gray, a well known farmer of the Fairview neighborhood, died last Thursday night. Death was due to pneumonia, from which he had been a sufferer for a week. He was about 45 years old and leaves a family. The interment took place in the Gray burying ground Saturday.

Author of Ben Her III.

The family of Gen. Lew Wallace is alarmed over an illness with which he has been suffering. At present he is confined to his bed. The trouble started with a diseased tooth, but has developed until the general is in a greatly weakened condition.

CONTEST EXTENDED.

Popular Lady Decision Will Be Postponed Sixty Days.

It is proper to add at this time, when no advantage has been secured by any contestant forestalling the probable outcome of the Popular Lady Voting Contest, that it has been decided to extend for about sixty days the time that the contest will run. It will close not later than March 4th, 1903. The postponement has been decided upon for several reasons. One is that many subscribers begin in January and these will be given an opportunity to renew.

Another reason is that the extension of the time will remove the difficulties in the way of many delinquents who have promised to pay up as soon as they realize on tobacco and other crops. Many do not sell until after the holidays. The interest is growing in the contest, which was not fully understood at first and the time set, Dec. 29, has been found to be too short for the purposes the contest was intended to accomplish. A postponement will work no harm to any contestant and will undoubtedly contribute largely to the success of the contest from a business standpoint.

Officers Elected.

The Teachers Association of this congressional district adjourned Saturday at Owensboro. Madisonville was selected as the next place of meeting. Prof. T. H. Smith, of Madisonville, was elected President; Prof. A. C. Burton, of Morganfield, Secretary, and Miss Mary Sassen, of Henderson, Treasurer.

Dangerously Ill.

Mr. Clyde Barnett, assistant engineer for Forbes & Bro., and son of Mrs. Sallie Barnett, is dangerously ill at the home of his mother, on North Main street, of typhoid pneumonia. His condition was unimproved yesterday and his recovery is considered doubtful.

BIG BAPTIZING

As Result of Meeting at Virginia Street Church.

The meeting at the Virginia street colored Baptist church, which had been in progress for three weeks, closed Friday night. There were about sixty conversions and forty-seven of the converts were baptized in the old mill pond, near the North Main street bridge Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. E. Williams, the pastor, was assisted in the meeting by Rev. L. C. Majors, of Pembroke.

THREE PAPERS

On the Athenaeum Program For Thursday Night.

The December meeting of the Athenaeum will be held at 7 o'clock Thursday evening, at Hotel Latham. The program contains papers by Mr. Frank Rives, Dr. R. L. Woodard and Dr. T. W. Blakey. The club now has nearly 30 members and the meetings are growing in interest every month.

TWO BUSY DAYS.

Receipts Amounted to About $26,000 Friday and Saturday.

Saturday was the last day for paying State and county taxes before the penalty went on and the sheriff's office was filled with people both Friday and Saturday. The receipts were nearly $15,000 on Saturday. About $11,000 was paid in Friday.

Will Move to Columbus.

Rev. J. H. Spurlin and wife will move to Columbus, Ky., next week, where they will make their future home. Rev. Spurlin has been the pastor of the Baptist church in this city for ten years, and it is with universal sorrow that we give him up, but Sturgis' loss is Columbus' gain, and the best wishes of all our people go with him to his new home. #### EXPERIENCED DIPLOMAT.

Jean Jules Jusserand, formerly Appointed Ambassador from France to United States.

M. Jean Jules Jusserand, who will succeed M. Cambon as ambassador to the United States, will be received with open arms by Washington society. He is 43 years old, and half of his life has been spent in diplomatic service. Throughout his career M. Jusserand has been a devoted admirer of America and American institutions.

Mme. Jusserand is a charming American woman. She was before her marriage Miss Richards, of Boston. The meeting with M. Jusserand took place some ten years ago in France and was spoken of as an affair of love on first sight. The match was facilitated by the fact that M. Jusserand speaks English fluently. He is thoroughly informed on English and American history, and in his public speeches refers frequently to American enterprise and veracity.

JEAN JULES JUSSERAND.
(Now Ambassador from France to the United States.)

In literary circles here M. Jusserand occupies a prominent place. He was decorated with the Legion of Honor in 1893, and nine years later was made an officer of the order. He is a voluminous writer. Among some of his noted works are "La Vie Nominale et les Routes d'Angleterre au XIV. Siecle," "Les Anglais au Moyen Age," "Le Roman Anglais," "Le Roman au Temps de Shakespeare" and "Le Theatre en Angleterre depuis la Conquete jusqu'aux Predecesseurs immediats de Shakespeare."

M. Jusserand entered the French diplomatic service in the London consulate in 1878. From 1887 to 1890 he was consul to the embassy in London, and since 1899 he has been minister to Denmark.

MISS RUTH HANNA.

She Will Soon Become the Bride of the Oldest Son of Ambassador McCormick, of Chicago.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Hanna, daughter of Senator Marcus A. Hanna, to Joseph Medill McCormick, son of Robert McCormick, of Chicago, recently appointed ambassador to Russia, was made the other day. The engagement is not only of interest to Cleveland and Chicago society where the two young people have been reared, but to the leading political and social circles of two continents. Ambassador and Mrs. McCormick recently returned to America. Whether the visit means a vacation to the ambassador at the time of his change from the Austrian mission to that of Russia or whether it means the wedding is soon to take place has not been announced; in fact, the date for the wedding is not yet public. Miss Hanna is well known in Chicago as

MISS RUTH HANNA.
(Youngest Daughter of Senator Marcus A. Hanna, of Ohio.)

ety. She has visited many of the young society women here, but the greater portion of her time in Chicago always has been spent with her school friend, Miss Adelaide Hamilton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Hamilton, of Michigan avenue. To Chicago society folk the engagement did not come as a great matter of surprise. The existence of a betrothal, or at least the possibility of one, has been hinted at before. Miss Hanna, whose coming-out party was an event in Washington society two seasons ago, is a graduate of Farmington. She is a fine equestrienne and a lover of outdoor sport generally. Mr. McCormick, who is the namesake and grandson of the late Joseph Medill, of the Chicago Tribune, has adopted his grandfather's profession since his graduation from Yale, and is on the Tribune staff.

Women Rule the Roost.
Woman's rights prevail in Abyssinia. There the wife is boss of the household. The house, with all its contents, belongs to her, and if the husband offends her she turns him out until he is fully repentant and makes amends.

RHEUMATISM.

It used to be thought that rheumatism was a disease of the bones. Now we know that it is a disease of the blood. If rheumatism is caused by impure blood, it must be cured through the blood.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures rheumatism, because it purifies the blood from clogging and corrupting substances. It removes the cause of disease. Its effects are the same when the impure blood causes pimples, eruptions, boils, sores, etc. By its perfect purification of the blood "Golden Medical Discovery" removes the cause of disease, and gives the smooth clear skin which belongs with good health.

"I cannot praise your medicine too highly," writes Mr. James E. Crumpton, of Sharpsburg, Washington Co., Md. "I was in business in Baltimore and had rheumatism for three months; couldn't walk at all. I tried the best doctors I could get but they did me no good. I took three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and it cured me sound."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

The Egg-Laying Hen.

There are those who pose as experts who scoff at the theory that there is an egg-laying type of hens. They call it an absurd theory to claim that one type of a hen will lay more eggs in a year than another. The belief that there is an egg-laying type was founded on the theory that a wedge-shaped hen like a wedge-shaped cow would be more productive than one with a square body and a heavy breast.

This theory was found by experience to square with the facts and a good many successful poultrymen have proved to their satisfaction that the hen that is deep and wide in the rear is the one to expect a large number of eggs from. In speaking of depth and width in this connection we use the words in their comparative rather than their positive sense, for all the hens of some breeds are deep and wide in the rear, but in these breeds—the Cochins, for instance—the front as well as the rear of the body is deep and wide.

Mr. Greene of Eureka Farm told us of a breeder of White Rocks who began to select his best layers with a view to producing a distinctively egg-laying strain. After two years he gave it up because his hens were assuming too much of the Leghorn shape to be good Plymouth Rocks. This is nothing against the Plymouth Rocks, for they are a general purpose breed good for eggs or meat, and one cannot look for great superiority along two lines in any one breed.

The other day, while going over Riverside Farm with Mr. Forsyth, we came to a bunch of fine Brown Leghorns, big lusty hens, wide across the rump and deep behind the legs. We remarked that those hens ought to be good layers.

"They are," said Mr. Forsyth, "those wedge-shaped hens are like my wedge-shaped Guernsey cows; they are my best layers."

"How do you find them as winter layers?" we asked.

"The best in the world," was the answer. "They may say what they please about Brown Leghorns, but I know that kind of a hen lays as well in winter as any breed and they keep it up right through the summer."

If there is any one in the business who is qualified to give an unprejudiced answer it is Mr. Forsyth, for he has three varieties of Leghorns, Houdans, two varieties of Wyandots and two of Plymouth Rocks.

His opinion was confirmed by Mr. Leonard, also of Owego, who keeps Brown Leghorns for market eggs alone. We asked him some questions, without telling him why, and his replies confirmed what Mr. Forsyth had said. Mr. Leonard further said he kept Brown Leghorns after trying several other varieties, because they were most profitable on his farm.

We noticed that the egg-laying type was prominent among the birds we saw there. Mr. Leonard is not a fancier. He keeps hens for what they will make for him at market prices.

We hold it true that the most prolific hen may be selected by her shape.—Commercial Poultry.

Limber Neck.

It is said limber neck is caused by the chickens feeding on maggots. When they have access to manure heaps which are undergoing fermentation, or a partly decayed carcass, this trouble is liable to show itself. Perhaps only a small proportion of poultry raisers have had it to contend with, but nobody will want to have a tussle with it but once. Sweetened water is recommended as a cure for it. A tablespoonful of sugar dissolved in a glass of water is about right, and several spoonfuls of the mixture must be poured down the throat of each bird affected.

—Michigan Poultry Breeder.

Outcrossing For a Purpose.

I have been very much interested in your remarks from time to time upon the subject of outcrossing or introducing foreign blood to improve some breeds of fowls, for instance, an outcross with White Cochins to improve the size of the White Plymouth Rocks and White Wyandottes. In my mind it is perfectly legitimate, and when one understands how to proceed and accomplish the points desired it is no doubt the shortest and best method to pursue. It is a well known fact that all of the American breeds are made up from the larger Asiatic or the smaller Mediterranean, or some other crosses which is made up of unknown blood mixtures. There is no need of our worrying over the purity of the blood so long as they come up to the standard requirement and possess the breeding qualities to reproduce these same requirements.

The writer has given this subject a great deal of thought, being a breeder of one of the new breeds that do not breed as true to the standard as he thinks they should. He has thought seriously of the defects that blood to correct the defects that so persistently crops out, and I am satisfied if I had the necessary room for carrying out my plans it would be my quickest way to the top of the ladder. I quote from Mr. J. H. Davis in his book "The art of Poultry Breeding" under the chapter of outcrossing he says:

"The intelligent breeder then who breeds for the results will not be afraid of an outcross if made on scientific principles and with the single purpose of improving his birds, as he may think they need improving. But he must not sacrifice utility to gain a fancy point or two. All breeds deteriorate more or less where a careful selection is not practiced in the propagation of the species. If the improvement in a flock cannot be made satisfactorily with birds of the species there, it is the duty of the fancier to go outside the breed for blood to build upon."

The foregoing is from one of high authority, and as you have said in a previous number of the Southern Poultry Journal that certain breeders who have made such high reputation for their particular breeds have not hesitated to go "outside" of the breed for blood to build upon. They saw what was needed, acted accordingly, and they have been rewarded with all the prizes at all the principal shows over the country.

It is true when one goes outside for new or foreign blood he must proceed with care for several generations, until he has fostered the points sought so they will breed true without any material variations. This can be done by systematic and close inbreeding. It is through these means that the true character is enabled like an artist to cut out a little in one section, to remodel and complete a structure which is never perfect, and while it requires a great deal of labor, patience and perseverance, yet to the fancier who knows just what his work will lead to in the height of his glory while working along these lines.—C. R. JOHNSON, in Southern Poultry Journal.

Tribute to the Hen.

H. W. Collingwood pays this glowing tribute: "A hen is worthy of the best work of the fancier, the farmer or the business man. The money obtained for her products is widely distributed; it circulates everywhere; it cannot be cornered; it goes into every home, every farm, every town, every grocery store in the land. The hen is a chemist, a banker and a manufacturer. She holds the tort from the Klondike to Cape Horn, and she is rolling mortgages on her eggs and cackling a brave defiance when the wolf howls at the door."

Skim-Milk for Poultry.

Another way of disposing of the surplus skim-milk with profit is to feed it to the poultry. As a feed for poultry, it furnishes the material for making growth in a palatable, easily-digested form. For this reason it is easily valuable as an addition to the grain ration which is liable to lack in the materials to make growth. The Indiana Experiment Station fed two lots of growing chickens exactly alike, except one lot was given all the skim-milk it would eat, in addition to the grain ration. The lot having grain, but no skim-milk, made an average gain of 6.62 ounces per week. The lot receiving skim-milk made a gain per week of 4.46 ounces. The conclusion of this experiment was as follows:

"If skim-milk be added to the ration fed young chickens, it will increase the consumption of other foods given. The greatest increase in gain was coincident with the period when the greatest amount of skim-milk was consumed. Skim-milk is especially valuable as a food for young chickens during the hot, dry weather, and becomes of less importance as the chickens grow older and the weather becomes cooler."

The New York Experiment Station found skim-milk a very economical feed for producing growth in chickens. In these experiments the skim-milk was valued at twenty-five cents per hundred pounds, but some careful poultry feeders believe fifty cents per hundred too high a valuation. Skim-milk can be fed sweet or after it is quite thick and sour. It is necessary, in feeding it in any form to poultry, to take great care that the troughs or utensils in which it is fed be kept clean. Lack of attention to this point is about the only cause of poor results from feeding skim-milk as an addition to the grain ration for poultry.—Missouri Experiment Station Bulletin.

When you ask for Cascarets be sure you get the genuine Cascarets. Don't accept fraudulent substitutes, imitations or counterfeits! Genuine tablets stamped C. C. C. Never sold in bulk. All druggists, etc.

Wash the Eggs.

Commission merchants say that on an average there is a difference of four cents a dozen between soiled eggs and those that are sent to market bright and clean, says Poultry Farmer. And it is not necessary that all the eggs of a shipment should be soiled in order to make the consignment rank as such. Even a very small proportion of soiled eggs in a package will cause the whole to be rated several cents below the market price. The tramping on the eggs by dirty feet of the hens, fresh from the moist earth of the yards, and the discoloration produced does not affect the contents but it gives the egg an uninviting appearance, and it is not expected that people will be indifferent to the looks of things which they buy for their table. Poultry keepers can afford to take the time to clean the shells of the eggs which they send to market when the failure to do so means the loss of four cents a dozen.

Notice is hereby given that the firm of Gaither & West will, on Nov. 1st, 1902, dissolve partnership, by mutual consent, and all parties indebted to them will please call and make settlements at once. The business will from Nov. 1st be conducted by Mr. Jas. West at the New Enterprise Warehouse on L. & N. R.R. between Eleventh and Twelfth streets, under the firm name and style of Jas. West & Co., where he will be glad to serve patrons and friends of the old firm.

Large Flocks.

There are but few, if any, very large flocks where 500 or 1,000 hens are kept, says the Philadelphia Record. Farmers are disposed to give the cow the preference, leaving poultry to the female members of the family, yet keeping cows involves more labor than is required for poultry, and fowls can be made more profitable in proportion to capital invested or required than larger stock if farmers will give poultry special attention as a business; but all large stocks must be started on the farm with healthy and vigorous pure breeds, four or five years being necessary to have the flock to the full limit in number, for the reason that if they are purchased in large numbers the fowls must be procured from many different places, and the result will be disease and lice. It is this starting with large numbers of purchased birds that has caused so much disaster to enterprises of that character. The farmer who will gradually increase his flock until he has several hundred and who raises his young stock from selected parents, will have an opportunity for observation and deriving experience as his flocks grow. In the winter season, when their labor, the management of a large flock should be very remunerative, and as the returns for eggs and poultry are cash, and frequent, less capital will be required than for some other enterprises. The fowls contribute daily.—Farmers Home Journal.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce
MR. W. H. C. HILL,
Of Christian County, as a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in the First Railroad District of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election Nov. 1903.

We are authorized to announce
R. C. CRENSHAW,
Of Christian County, as a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture in Kentucky, subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election November, 1903.

The Louisville Evening News has suspended publication.

Congress will reconvene next Monday and Speaker Henderson will spend the next thirty days explaining why he declined to run. Although his successor has been decided upon, he will continue to serve as Speaker until March.

The sale of the big Porter farm in Warren county to Editor E. G. Logan, of Louisville, has been confirmed. The price was $15,000. Mr. Logan will resign his position as editor of the Times about the first of March and move to his farm.

There are 1902 precincts in Kentucky. Back in 1900, when Bryan pulled him through, had only 3500 votes to spare. A change of one vote in each precinct would make a difference of 3,524. "Fools rush heading where angels fear to tread."

If Gov. Beckham is afraid to ask the Court of Appeals to pass upon his eligibility in a friendly test case, as seems evident from his change of plans, somebody else should attend to it for him. It is easier for a machine to override party rules than it is to ignore the constitution.

Latham, Alexander & Co. in their annual estimate on the cotton crop put the total number of bales at 11,000,000 against 10,800,000 last year. Georgia and Louisiana raise less than last year. All other cotton growing states show an increase. Texas leads with nearly one-third of the entire crop.

The short session of Congress began yesterday. Anti-trust talk is again being indulged in and the admission of the three territories will be an important matter to come up. Oklahoma may get in, but Arizona and New Mexico are two uncertain politically to stand much chance.

A few months ago Editor Walton, of the Lexington Democrat, was paying up the debt all over the second railroad district against Beckham, which he admitted was putting him out of business. Now when Beckham's machine decides to take out of the contest all candidates except those selected by the machine, Mr. Walton is loud in his shouts of approval.

The editor of the Kentuckian has been misquoted to some of the papers. He has not intimated that an anti-machine ticket be nominated to run till November. A ticket of this sort, agreed upon by conference or in convention, would be the most effective way to outvote the machine, if the primary scheme stands the test of the courts. An

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. The Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by all druggists. See Dr. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

All Stuffed Up

That's the condition of many sufferers from catarrh, especially in the morning. Great difficulty is experienced in clearing the head and throat.

No wonder catarrh causes headache, impairs the taste, smell and hearing, pollutes the breath, disfigures the stomach and affects the system.

To cure catarrh, treatment must be constitutional. No rubs and tonics. I was afflicted with catarrh. I took medicines of different kinds, giving each a fair trial, but gradually grew worse until I could hardly bear, taste or smell. I then concluded to try Dr. Hall's Sarsaparilla, and after taking five bottles I was cured and have not had any return of the disease since. FREDERICK FORSTER, Lebanon, Kan.

anti-machine ticket should be made up of such men as Jno. K. Hendrick, W. P. Thorne, J. T. Griffith, Senator Byron, or N. B. Hays, Harry Tandy, Jno. B. Chenault, J. J. Watkins or Jas. H. Fuqua, Robt. L. Green and some one of the several good men running for commissioner of Agriculture and this ticket pitted against the "merger ticket" in the machine primary and the people given a chance to express themselves on the issue raised.

What do the Democrats of Kentucky think of the proposition to have their party platform written by machinery? With the committee controlled in the interest of one set of candidates, the platform to be written by a sub-committee endorsing all they do and the same committee given unlimited power to tax candidates, not uniformly but upon any basis they may appropriate, no wonder there is likely to be a revolt against rule compared to which the Meigs Hall uprising was as the murmur of the meadow brook to the wild tumult of the mountain storm.

Pretty Home Wedding.

The marriage of Dr. Benjamin Caudle and Miss Maggie Boyd, which was consummated last Wednesday afternoon, was, owing to their prominence and popularity, an event in which a large circle of friends felt deeply interested.

Save to a few of the kinsmen of the contracting parties the announcement in the Kentuckian some two weeks ago, came as a complete surprise even to their intimate friends, who, although they were aware that the couple had been sweethearts a long time, did not know that the date for the wedding had been arranged.

The marriage took place at the handsome home of the bride's parents, near Newstead, Ky., and a large concourse of relatives and friends were present. It was one of the prettiest weddings of the season. The decorations were exceptionally beautiful. The spacious parlor contained beautiful flowers, palms, chrysanthemums, holly and evergreens in profusion and the effect was exquisite.

Promptly at three o'clock, to the strains of the wedding march beautifully rendered by Miss Florence Wynnes, the bride entered the parlor with her maid of honor, Miss Lizzie Vance, followed by the bridesmaids with their best men. Mr. Will Lyons Caudle. They were met at the improvised altar of palms, evergreens, etc., by Rev. W. L. Payton. The attendants fell back to either side of the handsome young couple and the nuptial ceremony was begun, the music being continued softly.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party were driven to the home of the groom's father, at Howell, Ky., where a reception was tendered them that night.

After a visit to other friends and relatives they will be at home to their friends at Newstead, Ky., after December the fifteenth.

Dr. and Mrs. Caudle were the recipients of many useful and lovely bridal presents, attesting the regard in which they were held by their acquaintances.

The bride is one of the sweetest and most universally admired girls of the younger set in this neighborhood. Her lovely disposition and graciousness have endeared her to everyone who knows her.

The good-looking doctor is rapidly rising in his chosen profession and is a gentleman of sterling worth, ambition and integrity.

The good wishes of a host of friends go with them and may their married life be one uninterrupted sea of happiness with no sorrows to ripple its foam. A FRIEND.

AGAINST PRIMARY

Senator Watkins thinks it a Great Hardship.

Senator J. J. Watkins, of Union county, who has been in the city for the past two days attending the meeting of the Second Congressional District Teachers' Association, left Saturday afternoon for Louisville. Senator Watkins has been considering for some time the advisability of making the race for the Democratic nomination for superintendent of public instruction, but the recent action of the Democratic State Executive Committee in ordering a primary has put the senator in a quandary. While he is not outspoken yet, it is quite apparent that he thinks that if he goes into the primary it will be like going against nothing less than a brace game of the most pronounced type.

Senator Watkins stated that the Democrats of his county, which is the bulwark of Democracy in the Second congressional district, were considerably wrought up over the arbitrary action of the State executive committee, and that they were absolutely against holding a State primary. He also said that a State primary would practically eliminate the possibility of poor men, no matter how competent they were to fill any position, from making a race for a State office.

"The Union county Democrats," said Senator Watkins, "will meet in Morganfield Monday to take action in regard to the State primary. I am confident that a protest will be made. I will hasten home from Louisville in order to be present and take part in the proceedings. I am very desirous of making the race for superintendent of public instruction, but I am a poor man and the putting up of an enormous fee would put a financial burden on me that I have my serious doubts as to whether or not I could shoulder. However, I expect to have something to say about the matter in Morganfield Monday."

He said he had intended to attend the meeting of the executive committee at Frankfort to personally enter his protest against a primary, but was unable to leave home at the time.—Owensboro Messenger.

CONDEMNED

Prevailing Sentiment in Hancock Against Primary.

Hawesville, Ky., Nov. 29.—The writer has interviewed a sufficient number of leading Democrats in Hancock county to say that they, as a unit, condemn the calling of a state Democratic primary. Hancock Democrats have to fight like tigers for every inch of ground they get, and they believe they see in this move nothing but harmful results in a primary.

They declare it to be undemocratic in that it will forever put a stop to one of moderate means seeking to serve his country in office. There isn't, so far as can be ascertained, a Democrat of any prominence in Hancock county who is either for Mr. Beckham, or any other aspirant who is now in office at Frankfort, either as chief or sub. Our people want a new deal and fresh men. There are plenty of them, qualified and eligible beyond

FOUR-FOOT VEIN

Discovered at Sturgis—Coke Ovens Will Be Built.

Sturgis, Ky., Nov. 29.—The Hillman Iron Company, of St. Louis and Grand Rivers, struck a 4-foot vein of Bell coal here late this afternoon at the depth of 250 feet. The discovery means the building of some 200 coke ovens and the employment of from 800 to 1,000 men.

The company will at once begin to sink the main shaft and operate in the mean time the six-by-nine shaft just sunk in order to supply the Grand Rivers iron furnaces with the superior coke which the bell coal yields.

Messrs. Davis and Finley, of New York, representatives of the big coal combination, arrived today to confer with President J. L. Frankel, of the Tradewater Coal Company, regarding a deal for their fine property, the stock of which is owned by Louisville capitalists.

The Supreme Issue.

It has been officially denied that Gov. Beckham will take steps to have his eligibility tested in the courts. He evidently prefers not to incur this risk. However that may be, however judges and lawyers may twist and squint at the law, the people of Kentucky know that no man is morally eligible to hold the office of governor of Kentucky eight years, or seven years, ten months and twenty odd days, with the tremendous power of patronage in his hands to build up a machine by which he may establish a lifetime oligarchy. It is a serious enough assault upon the party to call an unlawful and expensive primary election to crowd poor men out of the race, but it is even worse to undertake this flagrant violation of the letter and spirit of the constitution of Kentucky. This is the supreme issue.—Owensboro Messenger.

The damage suit of David Browning against Benjamin Watson and Gus C. Severin for $5,000 was thrown out by the federal court at Owensboro. Browning was not allowed to vote in the election of 1900. He stated in his petition that he was a resident of Webster county at that time; but was temporarily living in Owensboro, having shortly before received an appointment in the revenue service. He went to Dixon to vote, but the defendants, who were officers of the election, refused to allow him to cast his ballot. He alleged that they had a corrupt motive for not allowing him to vote and asked $5,000 damages. The defendants admitted that he was not allowed to vote, but said that he was refused because he had no legal right to cast his ballot.

COLD WAVE,

With Blizzarding Weather Predicted for December.

Last Storm Period of Year Central on Christmas Day—Moderate Weather the Forecast.

Hicks, in Word and Works, sums up December weather as follows: From the 2nd to the 4th inclusive, cloudiness, with rain and snow will pass eastwardly across the country. The cold wave sure to follow the first storm period of the month will moderate on and touching the 7th and 8th, the barometer will fall, winds will drop around to southerly, and more rain, turning to snow, west and north, will pass eastwardly across the country. On and about the 8th, general rains, with possible lightning and thunder southward, are probable. In all reasonable probability, a wide and general cold wave will spread over the country from about the 9th to the 12th.

A regular storm period is central on the 14th, covering the 12th to the 17th. The disturbances of this period will reach a crisis within forty-eight hours of the time of full moon on the 14th, naturally after rather than before that hour. During this period many very decided winter storms will visit the North Atlantic ocean, making navigation perilous and unpleasant. In fact, a long and severe spell of boreal storms and storminess, especially on the sea and along northern coasts, will set in about this time and continue well through the remainder of the month. Very decided blizzards in the north and west will be very natural on and about the 14th and 15th. Behind these storms look for a very high barometer, with severe winter gales from the northwest, and cold wave that will be felt in varying degrees to the southern coasts.

All through this part of the month continued tendency to winter storms will prevail, but a marked return to storm conditions, with general rain and may be expected about the 19th to 21st. On the 21st these reactional storms will culminate in possible winter thunder, wind and rain, especially to the south, but it will be wise to look for a sudden change to snow, sleet and freezing, as the center of the low barometer works well to the east.

The last storm period for December and the year 1902 is central on Christmas day, the 25th. Storms of this period may have developed in Western sections by the 25th, but central and eastern parts of the country will most likely have fair and moderate weather Christmas day. From about Friday, the 26th, to Monday, the 29th, rain and snow will advance eastward quite across the country, leaving very cold weather behind them over most of the country as the month goes out.

RAILROAD TAXES

Paid Into Treasury For Last Six Years.

The Fiscal Court met in its regular monthly session Friday and transacted routine business. The most important matter that came up was the report of Esq. S. G. Buckner revenue agent and special commissioner, that he had collected from the Louisville & Nashville railroad $6,508.16, franchise tax for the years 1896 to 1901, and after deducting his commission of 30 percent, he had paid over to the county treasury the sum of $4,255.71. The report was formally accepted.

YOUTSEY WILL TALK.

Ready to Make Public All He May Know.

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 29.—Henry E. Youtsey made a statement to-day in which he said: "No document from me is in the hands of the prosecution in the Goebel case. I have never been called to the witness stand, but I have been so abused that I feel now that I should be willing to tell you I know about that affair, no matter which side called me."

His statement has created a sensation.

TIRED OF LIFE.

Former Soldier Commits Suicide By Shooting.

Marion Pritchett ended his life by shooting himself with a shotgun at Madisonville Thursday. He had wearied of life because of adversities. Pritchett was a Spanish-American soldier, a member of the Third Kentucky regiment, and will be remembered by all the "boys" of Southwestern Kentucky. He was a member of a well known family of Madisonville, his father being Thomas W. Pritchett. "Mike" Pritchett, as he was known, lost a leg as he was returning from Cuba after peace had been declared by Spain by falling beneath a train at a small station near Nashville.

ROBBED THE BANK.

Vault Completely Destroyed But Robbers Got Only $17.

The First National Bank of Wickliffe, was dynamited Friday night by a gang of robbers and while the vault was completely destroyed and bank building considerably damaged the robbers only secured $17. It is supposed that four men participated in the robbery. They made good their escape.

Rates For Export.

The railroads in the Central Traffic Association, in the territory around Chicago, have announced a raise in rates on export provisions. The new tariff is effective Jan. 1. Domestic rates are not disturbed.

WEEDS

Consumption is a human weed flourishing best in weak lungs. Like other weeds it's easily destroyed while young; when old, sometimes impossible.

Strengthen the lungs as you would weak land and the weeds will disappear.

The best lung fertilizer is Scott's Emulsion. Salt pork is good too, but it is very hard to digest.

The time to treat consumption is when you begin trying to hide it from yourself. Others see it, you won't.

Don't wait until you can't deceive yourself any longer. Begin with the first thought to take Scott's Emulsion. If it isn't really consumption so much the better; you will soon forget it and be better for the treatment. If it is consumption you can't expect to be cured at once, but if you will begin in time and will be rigidly regular in your treatment you will win.

Scott's Emulsion, fresh air, rest all you can, eat all you can, that's the treatment and that's the best treatment.

We will send you a little of the Emulsion free.

Be sure that this picture is in each of the bottles of Scott's Emulsion.

WILL NOT RUN.

Malcolm Yeaman Talks of Governor's Race.

Henderson, Ky., Nov. 27.—In an interview here this morning Hon. Malcolm Yeaman set at rest the rumors that he would be a candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor. He will not be in the race.

In reply to the question, "Is there any probability that you will enter the race?" he replied: "None whatever. Some of the local papers have mentioned the matter, but what has been said was not of my procurement. I have not now, and never have had, the least desire to become a candidate for the office, nor any desire to be brought into notice in that connection, not even a wish to start the report in order to get a chance to deny it, and you needn't deny it now unless you want to."

Mr. Yeaman also declares that Gov. Beckham is eligible to re-election and says that he is in favor of a primary. The fact that Mr. Yeaman has a son who is an appointee under Gov. Beckham in the capacity of assistant superintendent of the Lakeland asylum accounts, no doubt, to a large degree, for the last two declarations.

FOUR ECLIPSES,

Two of The Sun and Two of The Moon.

There will be four eclipses in the year 1903, two of the sun and two of the moon, as follows:

1. An annular eclipse of the sun March 28, visible as a small partial eclipse on the Pacific coast of North America, near sunset.

2. A partial eclipse of the moon on the evening of April 11, and morning of the 12th, visible in Eastern United States at the rising of the moon, the moon rising with the eclipse on.

3. A total eclipse of the sun September 21, visible as a small partial eclipse on the Eastern coast of South Africa; invisible here.

4. A partial eclipse of the moon October 5 and 6. The eclipse begins at the setting of the moon on the Pacific coast of the United States, and is therefore invisible in the U. S., except in our Pacific possessions.

ANTI-PASS AGREEMENT.

Final Vote On Subject to be Taken December 15.

The anti-pass agreement which was adopted by the railroads in Trunk Line territory last year is again up for discussion by the president. It is to be determined whether or not the agreement is to be continued another year and the meeting at which the final vote is to be taken will be held on Dec. 15. Considerable opposition to the continuation of the agreement is said to have developed.

CHARGE DISMISSED.

PUGILISTS WIN.

Louisville Judge Dissolves the Prize Fight Injunction.

Louisville is Once More to Be Wide Open for Prize Fighting.

Judge Toney, deciding the famous prize fight injunction case of Louisville, which stopped the fight in September, holds that the injunction should be dissolved. He says that persons who stay away are not injured by prize fights and those who pay to go enter no complaint, although they constitute a large and respectable element of society. He says an injunction cannot be granted to stop a crime that has not come off.

EFFECT OF THE DECISION.

The effect of Judge Toney's decision is to put boxing contests within the police powers. This view is against the ruling of Judge Field in enjoining the late Corbett-McGovern contest. Had Judge Toney been applied to in the first place instead of Judge Field the injunction would not have been granted and the bout would have come off as scheduled.

If Judge Toney's decision is sustained by the court of appeals, as is generally anticipated, it is likely that boxing in Louisville will be revived.

REFUSED TO SUSPEND ORDER.

An appeal was asked in the case and granted. Judge Toney, however, refused to suspend pending the appeal his order dissolving the injunction. It is likely that a motion will be made at Frankfort for a reinstatement of the injunction pending the appeal.

In the police court the same day, Judge McCann knocked out the city ordinance closing the pool rooms of Louisville, holding it to be invalid. He says that pool rooms are no worse than race tracks, where betting is allowed. Louisville is, therefore, to be a wide-open town.

Ed Alvey, of pardon notoriety, was one of the defendants.

SAVE AN HOUR

Will the Illinois Central Between Louisville and Memphis.

It is said that some important changes will be made in the fast passenger trains on the I. C. They will consist mainly in faster time, which will make the trains at least one hour earlier than at present. This will be accomplished by cutting out stops and increasing speed, the object being to save an hour between Louisville and Memphis.

Another change rumored is that the Hopkinsville and Paducah train will run to Fulton. It will arrive at Paducah at the same time in the morning, 7:50, and continue its run to Fulton.

The changes, it is said, will be made next Sunday. There will be no change in the schedule of the Hopkinsville train.

NO AGREEMENT REACHED

For Purchase of the Turnpikes by Davless Fiscal Court.

Owensboro, Ky., Nov. 26.—There was a meeting of the Fiscal Court of this county and the representatives of the various gravel road companies here today, but no agreement could be reached and the meeting adjourned without accomplishing anything. J. William Field, R. S. Hughes and Dr. Hugh Kimbley represented the different companies. The companies asked for 50 to 80 per cent. of the capital stock, while only $400 to $800 a mile was offered by the court. Condemnation proceedings will likely result.

Will Begin His Campaign.

The Louisville Commercial of yesterday says: "Hon. John K. Hendrick, of Paducah, was at Seelbach's last night. Mr. Hendrick is a candidate for the Democratic nomination of governor, and returned from Frankfort yesterday where he attended the meeting of the state executive committee. While strenuously opposing a primary to nominate a state ticket, Mr. Hendrick last night declined to comment on the committee's action, stating that he was content to await the decision of the court in the injunction proceedings. He did state, however, that he would immediately begin an aggressive campaign of the state in the interests of his candidacy, speaking at various points."

Secretary Mitchell gave the police the names of fourteen boys as suspects. The parents of the boys have demanded that the Y. M. C. A. board call for Mr. Mitchell's resignation. The directors after a stormy meeting adopted a resolution disclaiming responsibility for the secretary's action. The case will be further considered at a special meeting December 2.

In Memoriam.

Miss Sudie Ladd departed this life October 12, after an illness of thirteen days duration. She died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Mildred McGee, at Bennettsboro. Deceased was 44 years of age the 19th of April last. She had been a consistent member of the Baptist church about 24 years. She professed faith in Christ and was baptized by Rev. A. W. Meacham. She moved her membership to Cerulean Springs church, where she remained a faithful member until she moved her membership to Little River Baptist church during the time the writer was pastor, the same and was a member there at the time of her death. She gave all necessary directions about her burial and requested that a song be sung at the grave, and that the 8th chapter of Romans be read and a prayer be offered. She had no fear of death. The writer has often talked with Miss Sudie about her hope of heaven. She surely entertained a bright hope of heavenly glory beyond this vale of tears.

Sister Ladd was one of the choicest, saintliest characters we ever knew. No one came in touch with her without feeling that God had been moulding her life and character all these years. She had a deep inner consciousness of being a child of God, and in His presence and blessings she rejoiced. Her life was given to Him, and how she delighted in His service. She loved God's house, the place of His abode; she loved the cause of Christ, and rejoiced in the prosperity of Zion. She was a friend to the poor and needy.

Many will call her blessed because of her gentle ministry of love. In her last hours she longed to be with her Lord, and soon the fateful hour was over, her spirit took its way back to God, and on her placid face was marked the sweet and peaceful rest of a child of God.

"We shall reach the riverside
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
We shall cross the stormy tide,
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
We shall press the sands of Gold
While before our eyes unfold
Heaven's Splendor, yet untold,
Some sweet day, some sweet day."

"We shall meet our loved one
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
Gathering round the Great White Throne
Some sweet day, some sweet day.
By the Tree of Life so fair,
Joy and rapture everywhere,
Oh! the bliss overthere,
Some sweet day, some sweet day."

Thank God! we sorrow not as others who have no hope. For if we believe Jesus died and rose again even also those who sleep in Jesus will God bring with Him."

To bereaved ones: we shall meet her again in the land of eternal Sunshine and Song where the waves of sin and death will no more assail or separate forever.

C. E. PERRYMAN.

Solves a Problem.

The Mayville Public Ledger has solved a problem. It says: The question as to how a two-dollar-a-week boy can smoke cigarettes, bowl every night, take a semi-weekly buggy ride with a girl, buy two or three tickets for every show and feed on bananas by the dozen, was partially answered a few days ago by the discovery that one of this class had gotten away with a large quantity of his employer's goods and cash from a store on West Second street.

County to Be Determined By Ballot.

The Winner Will Be Awarded a
Set of Furniture worth $110.

A VOTING contest was begun August 29, for four months, to determine by popular vote the most popular lady in Christian County. To the lady receiving the highest number of votes, we will present an elegant set of bedroom furniture, now on exhibition at Pyle & Gauntt. It is of quartered oak, of the finest make and latest style, and is worth $110. The contest will close at 12 o'clock, noon, Monday, December 29, 1902. The plan will be as follows:

Every subscriber to the Kentuckian who pays back dues or cash in advance will be entitled to cast one vote for each five cents paid. That is to say, a subscriber who pays $2.00 will have 40 votes, one who pays $1.00 will have 20 votes and so on for any amount large or small. In every paper published there will be a coupon and these coupons when cut out and brought or sent to the office will represent each one vote. A subscriber will also have the privilege of gathering up coupons clipped by friends from their papers and voting them one at a time, or by the hundred if preferred. One will also have the privilege of buying papers at the office at five cents each and voting the coupons cut from them.

The coupon ballots will be deposited in a ballot box with two keys. One of these keys will be held by County Judge W. T. Fowler and the other by Mayor Jouett Henry. The box will be opened not often than once a week, all ballots then in it taken out, counted and certified to, sealed up in an envelope and replaced in the ballot box. The envelope will contain a statement of the votes in it, so that its contents will not need to be counted again until the official count at the close of the contest.

The last week of the contest the ballots may be deposited without showing them, so that the close of the contest may be secret and exciting to the end.

NEWSPAPER CHANGE.

Henry Watterson's Courier-Journal Announces a New Policy.

During Three Decades the Louisville Courier-Journal has stood unalterably and conspicuously before the public as the representative of the great commonality of the people against both the Robber Baron, seeking through the accretion of ill-gotten money to steal away the people's liberty by stealing away their franchise rights, and the ready tool of the Robber Baron, the bandit politician, masquerading as a Statesman and a patriot the better to serve the ends of his master. In fulfilling this high function it has sometimes had to go fast and sometimes to go slow, sometimes to cry "onward," and sometimes to cry "halt," sometimes to drive at the root of things, and sometimes to drive ahead; but never changing the direction of its movement and always true to the underlying principle of its being, expressed by the simple demand for "The Greatest Good to the Greatest Number."

With the advent of the New Year, that is on the first of January, 1903, the Courier-Journal began a campaign from which it looks for commanding results, and the better to reach the objects it has before it, the twice-a-week edition, returning to the old Weekly Courier-Journal, which for a quarter of a Century was literally a political bible to millions of Americans who knew they could trust both its presence and its disinterestedness.

The new Weekly Courier-Journal is modern in every respect, and is a paper for the home. It is issued every Wednesday, and it is ten or twelve eight-column pages are filled with the best work of the best writers. The price of the paper is $1 a year, in advance, and it is well worth it.

By a special arrangement with the publishers of the Courier-Journal you can get that paper and THE KENTUCKIAN one year for $2.50.

The interment took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon in the family burying ground, Newark.
